

Reading 2A

If Skies Be Blue

Creatures Great and Small

(Lessons 33–70)

Enrichment Words — Context Sentences

Philip and His Farm
Lesson 33

1. My allergies make me sneeze.
2. I think Philip is a great name.
3. Pardon me, I did not mean to bump into you.

Philip and His Farm
Lesson 34

1. There is a queen ant in every colony.
2. The gloves will keep the snow off your hands.
3. The buzzing bees make honey.
4. I dug through the sand with a shovel.
5. Can you march like a soldier?
6. You're not going to get warts from a toad.

My First Lamb
Lesson 36

1. The shepherd heard the hungry bleat of the lambs.
2. The mother sheep is called the ewe.
3. We listened all morning as the doves cooed.

Little Lost Lamb
Lesson 37

1. The farmer fed his flock of sheep.
2. The sheep's home is called a fold.
3. The shepherd looks after his sheep.
4. You might get lost if you stray far from home.
5. Can you throw a ball farther than your sister?

Little Lost Lamb
Lesson 38

1. Granny won't be able to hear the faint noise.
2. The mouse will snatch the cheese.

Little Lost Lamb
Lesson 39

1. The rocks fell from the top of the cliff.
2. The side of the cliff is very steep.
3. We sing to show our praise to the Lord.

Kangaroos and Koalas
Lesson 40

1. Sally has the ability to play the flute.
2. If you pat a cat, its fur will twitch.
3. The cat cornered a mouse behind the couch.
4. A cat is the enemy of a mouse.
5. A mother will protect her baby from harm.

Kangaroos and Koalas
Lesson 41

1. The leaves of a eucalyptus tree smell strong.
2. You both run fast.

1. The man has a bundle of sticks for the fire.

Kate Kangaroo
Lesson 44

1. The black tar was sticky and hot in the sun.

Kate Kangaroo
Lesson 45

1. The turtle has a shell for his home.
2. Is the bright sunlight bothering you?
3. I was sorry that I had broken the window.

Kate Kangaroo
Lesson 46

1. We go to school to learn.
2. Mother tossed the salad.

Mice
Lesson 48

1. I like to touch the soft rabbit fur.
2. The loud noise hurt my ears.

Cheerful Chickadees
Lesson 49

1. Mark found a chickadee feather under the tree.
2. The air was crisp and cold.

Cheerful Chickadees
Lesson 50

1. Mark can whistle a little tune.
2. The sun made the snow sparkle like gemstones.

Owl Face
Lesson 52

1. The pony will snort when you pet her nose.

1. Can you catch the ball with both hands?
2. Tom wore gloves to keep his hands warm.
3. The frightened owl is quivering all over.

1. Jesus is the Son of God.

Be Wise About Owls
Lesson 56

1. We have two ears to let us hear.
2. All birds have feathers on their wings.

Digger Does It
Lesson 57

1. Did you hear the telephone ring?
2. Grandmother called you on the phone.

Digger Does It
Lesson 58

1. The fielder can catch the baseball.
2. The glove helped him catch the baseball.

Service Dogs
Lesson 61

1. His disabilities cause him to use a wheelchair.
2. The horse was frightened by the storm.
3. I hope I can help and be of service to you.
4. The trainer will teach the dog what to do.

The Crow and the Pitcher
Lesson 62

1. Dave caught the baseball.

Wolf Pack
Lesson 63

1. My cap has a tassel hanging on it.
2. The wild wolf has sharp teeth.
3. I saw eight wolves this winter.

1. I dreaded telling Dad that I broke the window.
2. We walked down the hill into the valley.

Wolf Pack
Lesson 65

1. Dad said, “Amen,” when he finished praying.
2. I had pancakes for breakfast this morning.

A King for Brass Cobweb
Lesson 66

1. The narrator of the play spoke in a loud voice.
2. A great king rules his kingdom wisely.
3. The lizard stuck out his tongue at me.
4. The citizens love their king.
5. We said farewell to our friends as we left.

A King for Brass Cobweb
Lesson 67

1. Grandmother planted some violet flowers.
2. The hemlock trees had many cones on them.
3. Can the bear climb the tree?
4. David made the sound effects for the play.

5. Sheep and cattle were grazing in the meadows.

A King for Brass Cobweb
Lesson 68

1. The fire ruined many homes and stores.
2. The field of corn was long and wide.
3. We made a fence to surround the backyard.

A King for Brass Cobweb
Lesson 69

1. The students exit the classroom quickly.

A King for Brass Cobweb
Lesson 70

1. We had great adventures hiking through the woods.