

Reading 2B

When the Sun Rides High

Making Melody

(Lessons 141–62)

Enrichment Words—Context Sentences

1. The people who help the king are his court.
2. The ruler of China is known as the emperor.
3. Everyone knew about the famous painter.
4. The musician played a pretty piece of music.

1. The thief was banished from the kingdom.
2. The gears inside the toy turn when you wind it up.
3. It is very unusual to have snow in May.
4. The watchmaker fixed the clock.

The Flag Goes By
Lesson 143

1. There was a ruffle of clapping after the award was announced.
2. My sister lined up her dolls in an ordered row.
3. The crimson streamers on my bike match the red fenders.
4. The loud blare of the radio made me cover my ears.

1. We saw a fleet of warships in the bay.
2. The fleet of ships was led by a flagship.
3. He wondered whether they would release the prisoner.
4. They flew a truce flag to show that they came in peace.
5. The prisoner had been wounded in battle.

1. Ten people can sit on the broad pews.
2. The knight gallantly rode off to fight in the battle.
3. The ship is tied up in the harbor.
4. We sailed on a perilous trip through the storm.
5. The men ducked behind the ramparts to avoid getting shot.

1. Each state has a capital.
2. Pastor Jones is a godly man who loves the Lord.
3. The invading army swept through the land.
4. “I will get it right away, your majesty,” he said to the king.
5. The wicked people disobeyed God.

1. The men wore armor into battle.
2. God's mercy endureth forever.
3. The people murmured about having no water.
4. The prophets of God spoke to the people.
5. He looked down into the valley from the watchtower.

1. When we obey we are keeping God's commandments.
2. We took our dog to obedience school.

1. Can you keep your balance when you stand on one foot?
2. The old wooden door creaked when we opened it.
3. The wise men rode their camels to a faraway country.
4. The folks in this town like to go to the fair.
5. Not many people ride on trains nowadays.

Granny Nell's Dulcimer
Lesson 152

1. The nurse at the clinic gave me a shot.
2. I put both of the blossoms in a vase of water.
3. Mother won first place in the pie-baking competition.
4. The rain made the day seem dark and gloomy.
5. Our honeysuckle vine is blooming.

1. We went for a hike in the Appalachian Mountains.
2. I will change the light bulb when it burns out.
3. Can you swim the length of the pool?
4. Always ask a parent for help when using the stove.
5. Sound is made when strings vibrate.

1. My sister thinks the flute is a pretty instrument.
2. He sang a psalm in church.
3. There were only a few strings on a psaltery.
4. A righteous man hates sin and loves good.
5. It takes a lot of work to play the harp skillfully.

1. I like to read books, especially ones about real people.
2. I have memorized a poem to say to the class.
3. The doctor said the medicine will make him well.
4. The children romped and played in the grass.
5. Jan resolved to work hard in school.

1. A person who cannot see can read, using Braille.
2. The gospel is God's good news that Jesus died for our sins.
3. God's infinite power has no end.
4. Gold is a precious metal.
5. When Jesus died, He redeemed us from our sins.

The Song of Happy People
Lesson 160

1. Mother wears an apron when she cooks.
2. The brittle branch broke when I stepped on it.
3. The coin made a clinkety sound when it hit the floor.
4. I could not understand Sam when he muttered.
5. The white rabbit vanished into the snow.

1. We picked flowers off the bougainvillea bush.
2. Dad blew into his harmonica to play a tune.
3. Uncle Joe rowed the boat out to the island.
4. Mom peeled some sweet mangoes for me to eat.
5. Do you want any sugar to sweeten your tea?

When Singing Came Again
Lesson 162

1. Mom used a tablecloth to cover the old table.
2. I looked into the box and peered down at the kittens.
3. Please fold your clothes and put them away.