

Reading 2B

When the Sun Rides High

Special Deeds

(Lessons 116–140)

Enrichment Words—Context Sentences

New Friends
Lesson 116

1. I am proud to live in America.
2. We speak English in our country.
3. We heard a strange sound coming from the barn.

New Friends
Lesson 117

1. We put caramel topping on our ice cream.
2. Put the cover on the pool to keep the leaves out.
3. But God commendeth His love toward us.
4. Is your birthday tomorrow?

Bread from Heaven
Lesson 118

1. A soldier fights in the army.
2. He was wounded while fighting in the battle.
3. The canteen full of water hung from his belt.
4. Our Savior, Jesus Christ, died for us.
5. A man's soul will live somewhere forever.

Bread from Heaven
Lesson 119

1. The men had a loaf of bread for their weekly rations.
2. The tent was made of canvas.
3. Dr. Jones took care of the sick men.
4. God will answer your prayer.
5. The man's arm hung limp from his hurt shoulder.

The Farmer and the Donkey
Lesson 121

1. I especially like apple pie.
2. I like to climb the apple tree.
3. The kittens are scurrying to catch the mouse.
4. The tailor will make a robe for the king.

The Farmer and the Donkey
Lesson 122

1. Alas, I lost my kitten.
2. The old road is made of smooth cobblestone.

Have You Seen My Dog?
Lesson 123

1. We heard a faint, muffled sound in the shed.
2. The vacant house has been empty for years.
3. We went to the lumberyard to buy wood.
4. I could hardly hold the squirming kittens.

Have You Seen My Dog?

Lesson 124

1. We will adopt the kittens since their mother was killed.
2. Dad went to his office to work.
3. The cat will stalk the mouse.
4. The dark clouds made the room seem gloomy.
5. I wonder what I'll get for my birthday.

1. The horses pulled the chariot across the battlefield.
2. The man with leprosy had white spots on his arms and legs.
3. The prophet told the people what God wanted them to do.
4. The soldier held his shield ready to fight.
5. The army watched for the enemy to come.

1. He dunked his head under the water to get his hair wet.

1. Mother will inspect my room after I clean it.
2. Perkins was a school for the blind.
3. Tom squinted because the sun was so bright.
4. My eyes are puffy and swollen.
5. The Greens live in a city named Tewksbury.

1. We ate supper and went for a walk afterwards.
2. Dad made the decision to buy a new car.
3. I went to see the doctor when I was sick.
4. I learn a lot from reading about my Bible heroes.
5. Mark had an operation to fix his broken arm.

1. What else do you know about spiders?
2. We freed the mouse from the trap.
3. We had a cold liquid when the ice melted.
4. The bank robber was sent to prison for his crime.
5. We were silent as Dad prayed.

Just Mouse
Lesson 131

1. Dad will rescue the kitten from the top of the tree.
2. The hail battered against the windows.
3. Granny calls her basement a cellar.
4. Was it your idea to have a surprise party?
5. My knees felt weak and trembly.

1. Is it easy to frost a cake?
2. We will work on the problem together.
3. The children had a spat over taking turns on the swing.
4. Walking past that old house made me shudder.

The Wright Flyer
Lesson 134

1. We believed the forecast today and wore our boots.
2. Fold the paper in half and make a crease in it.
3. What are you drawing a picture of?
4. Put the muddy jeans in the washing machine.
5. The art show is open to the public.

The Pineyridge Snowstorm
Lesson 135

1. Mother made flapjacks for breakfast.
2. The squirrel made a den in the hollow tree trunk.
3. We met a man named Mr. Inkslinger.
4. We used shovels to clear snow off the sidewalk.
5. The boys tunneled through the pile of snow.

The Pineyridge Snowstorm
Lesson 136

1. She whispered softly to her friend.
2. The men were cutting wood at the sawmill.

White Silence
Lesson 137

1. The burglar crept around the house.
2. There are pleats in my skirt.
3. The store sells bridal clothes and other formalwear.
4. The bride wore a veil over her face.

1. We went to the store and bought some food.
2. Put your hand over your mouth when you cough.
3. The elevator in the store went to the basement.
4. We figured out how to solve the math problem.
5. Follow the recipe to make an apple pie.

Noodle Soup
Lesson 139

1. The celery stalks need to be washed.
2. Mom made a pot of hot chili for lunch.
3. The chopped onions made my eyes water.
4. Mom liked the soup and ate seconds.
5. Our class ate the whole birthday cake.