

Reading 2A

If Skies Be Blue

Treasures

(Lessons 71–92)

Enrichment Words — Context Sentences

Jonathan's Treasure
Lesson 71

1. Josh can play after he does his chores.
2. We went camping and fishing in Canada.

Jonathan's Treasure
Lesson 72

1. The missionary told people about Christ.
2. The offering was placed in the basket at church.

Jonathan's Treasure
Lesson 73

1. The bugs are bothering the children.

Jonathan's Treasure
Lesson 74

1. May I taste the apple pie while it is still warm?

1. Many Chinese people heard about Christ.
2. We sent Bibles to the missionaries.
3. God will answer your prayer.
4. My Bible has an Old and a New Testament.

Captain Stripe's Gold
Lesson 77

1. The ship's crew obeyed the captain.
2. A bird suddenly appeared outside my window.
3. Mr. Drew has two daughters and one son.
4. Our teacher taught us about Jesus.

Captain Stripe's Gold
Lesson 78

1. Sometimes a snake will coil before striking.
2. My sister bothered me while I played a game.
3. My best friend is my comrade.

Captain Stripe's Gold
Lesson 79

1. We saw a horrible car wreck this morning.
2. We listen carefully when our teacher reads to us.
3. The black snake slithered through the grass.
4. The cat licked my hand with its pink tongue.

The Fire Keeper
Lesson 80

1. Light shone into the mouth of the cave.
2. Shining Star brought water from the cool spring.
3. He picked up the spear and thrust it toward the beast.
4. Soon someone will appear in the doorway.
5. The boy pretended to be a hunter.

The Fire Keeper
Lesson 81

1. A birthday is a very important day.
2. I heard the roar of a mountain lion.

December Leaves
Lesson 82

1. I sweetened the tea with sugar.
2. Mom used a sifter to sprinkle sugar over the cookies.

Gifts from the Wise Men
Lesson 83

1. Did you see the glorious sunset?
2. We had a marvelous time on our trip this summer.
3. Each child is precious to God.

1. A caravan of men crossed the desert on camels.
2. Myrrh is a sweet-smelling oil.
3. The flowers have a sweet, fragrant smell.
4. Rock climbing can be hazardous to your health.
5. A playroom without toys would be very bleak.

1. The king lives in a palace.
2. The scribe copies many Bible texts.
3. The scribe wrote on the scroll.
4. The chief priest served God at the temple.
5. King Herod was a wicked king.

1. How does this bike compare to your old one?
2. We can worship God at church.

Gold, Frankincense, and Myrrh
Lesson 87

1. Penny likes to play with her mother's jewelry.
2. We can worship God all the time.

Squirrel's Treasure
Lesson 89

1. The girls wore bracelets on their wrists.
2. Mother's wedding ring has two diamonds.
3. Gold and silver are very precious.
4. The boys shivered in the cold night air.
5. It is wise to obey your teacher.

Squirrel's Treasure
Lesson 90

1. Father looked very stern as he scolded me.

Squirrel's Treasure
Lesson 91

1. The sight of the cat made the mouse quiver.
2. The boy walked uneasily across the bridge.