

Reading 6B

As Full as the World

Overcomers

(Lessons 118–41)

Vocabulary—Context Sentences

The Room
Lesson 119

1. We helped our new pastor move into the parsonage.
2. Grandma and Grandpa enjoy sitting out on the veranda each night after supper.

Secrets in the Walls
Lesson 120

1. The fugitive was caught shortly after escaping from prison.
2. My parents boarded a college student in our home for a year.
3. Dad stood in line to register me for soccer camp next summer.

The Important Part
Lesson 121

1. We knew Myra wasn't interested when she told us flatly that she would not go.

The Important Part
Lesson 122

1. We were already late for church, but our lateness was compounded when our car wouldn't start.
2. My sister is taking a class to learn the technique of painting with watercolor.

The Redheaded League
Lesson 123

1. Amy is so candid with everyone; there doesn't seem to be anything we don't know about her.
2. I had to pay a nominal fine to the library when I returned my books two days late.
3. After his wedding on Saturday, James will no longer be a bachelor.

The Redheaded League

Lesson 124

1. The salesman claimed that each vitamin tablet would add a year to one's life, but it was just a hoax.
2. Due to safety concerns, visitors are not allowed on the premises of the electrical plant.
3. The stagnant water was murky and covered with algae.

The Redheaded League
Lesson 125

1. The soldiers on the front lines were more vulnerable to gunfire than the soldiers farther back.
2. A bad call by an umpire sometimes incites a player to complain.
3. Sometimes Chris pretends she's sick, but when she had the flu we knew her moaning was unfeigned.

The Winner
Lesson 129

1. Christa's unsaved classmates taunted her for carrying her Bible to school.
2. The man was a traitor to America because he fought against his own country in the war.
3. Because Tim had never been roller-skating before, he looked ungainly as he skated around the rink.

The Winner
Lesson 130

1. I tolerated a messy room while my cousins were visiting, but as soon as they left, I cleaned it.
2. Even after his car accident, Darnel had the tenacity to continue running every day.
3. While on furlough from China, Marcie's family visited their supporting churches.

Laura Bridgman
Lesson 132

1. We went to an exhibition of dinosaur bones at the children's museum.
2. The large stone on the sidewalk was an obstacle to the children walking to school.
3. My little brother badgered me with so many questions that I became a little impatient.

The Three Mosquiteers
Lesson 135

1. It was difficult for Mom to be objective when judging the science fair exhibits because I was one of the contestants.
2. I gorged myself on Thanksgiving dinner and had a stomachache all afternoon.
3. The Sunday afternoon service was a deviation from the normal evening service.

The Three Mosquiteers
Lesson 136

1. Mom conceived a plan to surprise Dad with a party for his fortieth birthday.
2. Although Kylee hardly ever scores a goal, she keeps trying and is undaunted.
3. I instinctively ducked as the ball whizzed toward my head.

The Three Mosquiteers
Lesson 137

1. The storeowner tried to apprehend the thief, but he got away.
2. The irate man was yelling and shaking his fists at the driver who had backed into his car.
3. The crowded building was in bedlam after the fire alarm went off.

The Three Mosquiteers
Lesson 138

1. Mom made a cake to be served at the reception after my brother's high school graduation.
2. Since the church service had already begun, our family discreetly entered and sat in the last row.

It Must Not Fail!
Lesson 139

1. Jared ran doggedly to the finish line, even though he felt as though he couldn't run another step.
2. The pouring rain and dark clouds caused the day to be very dismal.
3. Mom rationed the dessert carefully since unexpected company had come for dinner.

Sons of a Mighty Father
Lesson 140

1. Coach tried to dissuade me from quitting the soccer team because I was his best goalkeeper.
2. When Dad lost his job, Mom became overwrought with wondering how we were going to pay our bills.

Sons of a Mighty Father
Lesson 141

1. Our family forbears Timmy's tuba practice in the house, although he does not play well.
2. After catching the thief, the policemen took him into their custody.
3. The tenements on the west side of town were home to many poor people.