

Reading 6A

As Full as the World

Ventures

(Lessons 53–71)

Vocabulary—Context Sentences

Antarctica
Lesson 54

1. The sick cattle were kept in isolation to prevent others in the herd from getting sick.
2. When the war started, Mr. Kendall removed his family from the hostile situation.
3. Becky is a careful, deliberate person who always plans ahead.

Antarctica
Lesson 55

1. Long exposure to the heat has cracked the cement.
2. The smell of bacon wafting through the house brought everyone to the table.
3. Sam rummaged through the attic, looking for his old coat.

Ornan the Jebusite
Lesson 58

1. Doing the same thing over and over can make any job seem tedious.
2. Sandy knitted with deft movements of her fingers.
3. The sudden storm compelled us to go indoors.

Ornan the Jebusite
Lesson 59

1. The engine died, leaving the fishermen feeling very vulnerable in the shark-infested waters.
2. The Bible warns us not to indulge in sin, even when temptations are strong.
3. Many people were hospitalized because of the infectious plague.

Shipwrecked!

Lesson 61

1. The musician moved his audience with transports of both joy and sadness.
2. The rich king always requested sumptuous feasts for his honored guests.
3. The boxes of food and clothing in the bottom of the boat were ballast that weighted the boat to keep it from tipping over.

Shipwrecked!

Lesson 62

1. Tom and his friends used ropes to devise a way to get down the steep hill.
2. The army sergeant likes his men to act properly and do everything in due course.
3. For our picnic in the woods, Dad improvised a picnic table from some long pieces of wood.

The Quisling Hunt
Lesson 64

1. Jeff is appraising my baseball card collection to see how much it is worth.
2. The poachers were convicted of selling animals that are on the endangered species list.
3. The traitor was responsible for the capture of five fellow soldiers.

The Quisling Hunt
Lesson 65

1. Karen made a nuisance of herself by complaining so much.
2. Because dolphins intrigued me, I wanted to learn all I could about them.
3. John's plane was taxiing down the runway when we arrived at the airport.

A Visit with a Mystery Writer: Gloria Repp
Lesson 66

1. There is always a traffic jam where the two highways intersect.
2. My teacher asked me to analyze each problem carefully and record the correct answers in the margin.

Yeoman Knight
Lesson 67

1. Will mounted his trusty steed and galloped across the field.
2. Carrie watched Pa skin the deer, anticipating the venison they would have for supper.
3. Pete's job was to roust the crabs from their holes in the sand.

Yeoman Knight
Lesson 68

1. I was in a quandary, not knowing which way to turn.
2. Brenda aspires to be in the orchestra, but she knows it will take a lot of practice.
3. Mom was incredulous when I first told her, but in the end she believed me.

Literature Lesson: Plot
Lesson 70

1. Sarah knew intuitively what had happened when she saw the look on his face.
2. Fruits and vegetables are elements of a healthy diet.
3. An angry speech was the inciting moment for the riots that took place in the streets.