

Guided Practice

► Read the following encyclopedia article taken from page 312 of The Travel Encyclopedia, Volume 17. Take notes on the card to help you remember the details. Write the information about the source.

Answers will vary. Possible answers are given.

Suriname

Suriname is a small country located on the northern coast of South America. Most Surinamese live near the coast because of the dense undergrowth of the jungles. Most of the roads in this country are also located near the coast. The jungles are only accessible by airplane or by boat. The heat and humidity are almost unbearable for most tourists.

Eli Smith

Facts About Suriname

1. small country in northern South America
2. people live by coast
3. get to jungles by airplane or boat
4. tourists don't like heat or humidity

The Travel Encyclopedia. Vol. 17, p. 312.

► Read the following encyclopedia article taken from page 202 of The Travel Encyclopedia, Volume 1. Take notes on the card to help you remember the details. Write the information about the source.

Argentina

The government of Argentina maintains most communication services in the country. Its nationwide postal service is fairly dependable. About half of Argentina's residents have telephones in their homes. Most cities publish national and local newspapers. Buenos Aires, the capital, has several private publishing companies.

Yolanda Sanchez

Communicating in Argentina

1. government maintains communication services
2. nationwide postal service
3. many people have telephones
4. cities have newspapers

The Travel Encyclopedia. Vol. 1, p. 202.

© 2004 BJU Press. Reproduction prohibited.

How much can you remember from a sermon you heard last week? Would taking notes during the sermon help you better remember what you heard?