Chapter Two

Draw a line to show the mice's path into the Tower.

Chapter Three

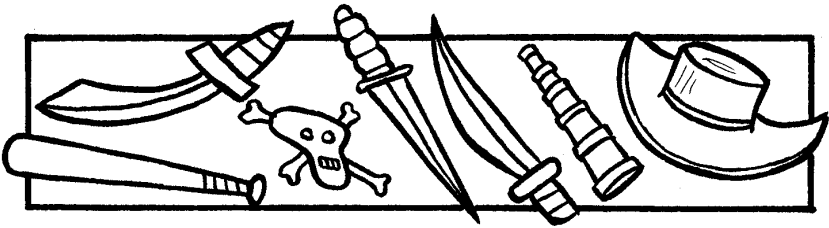

Draw a line to show where the sea dogs went after they escaped from the Tower.

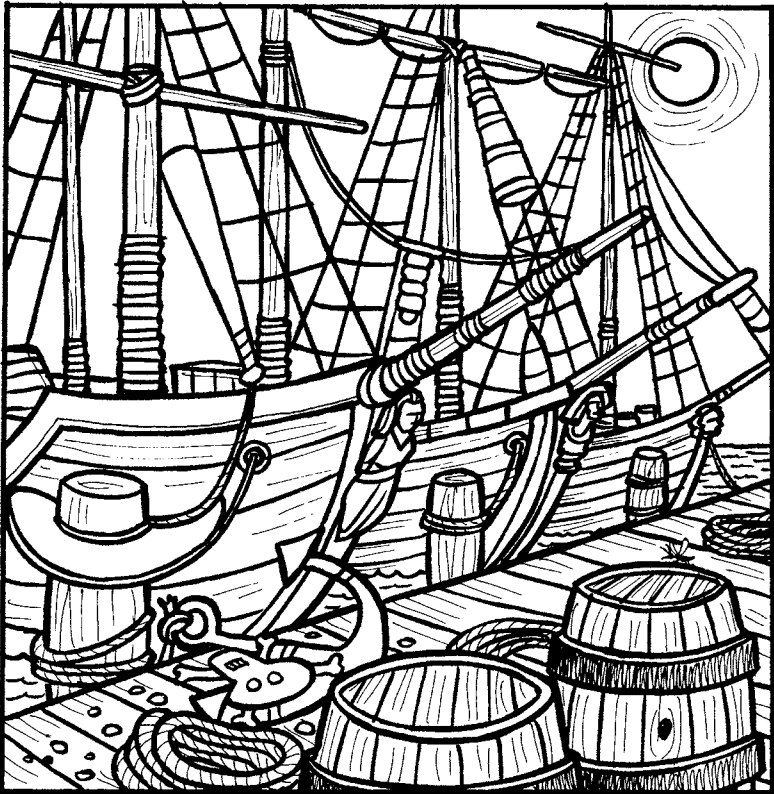

See answers, page 14.

Chapter Four

Charles and Oliver almost lost track of the sea dogs at the docks.

Find these sea dog objects hidden

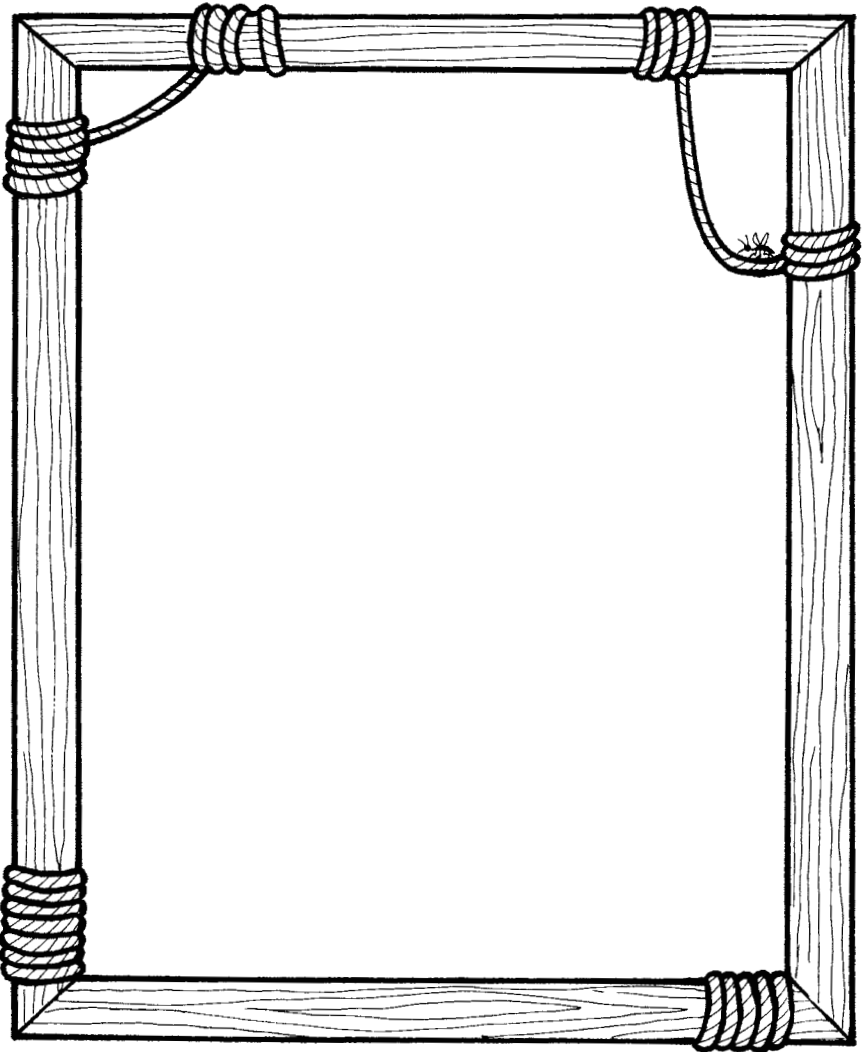

Chapter Five

in the picture below.

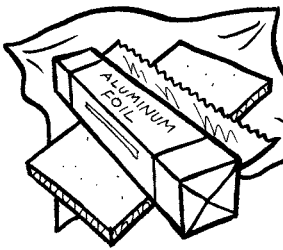

Charles and Oliver watched some strange-looking crew members come onboard the ship.

Draw one that they might have seen.

Chapter Six

Try this! Get black construction paper, cardboard, aluminum foil, a handkerchief, a long rubber band, boots, and some baggy old clothes. Then make your own pirate disguise, like Captain Tabby did.

handkerchief bandanna

aluminum foil & cardboard sword

patch made of construction paper & big rubber band

baggy clothes

wintertime boots

Chapter Seven

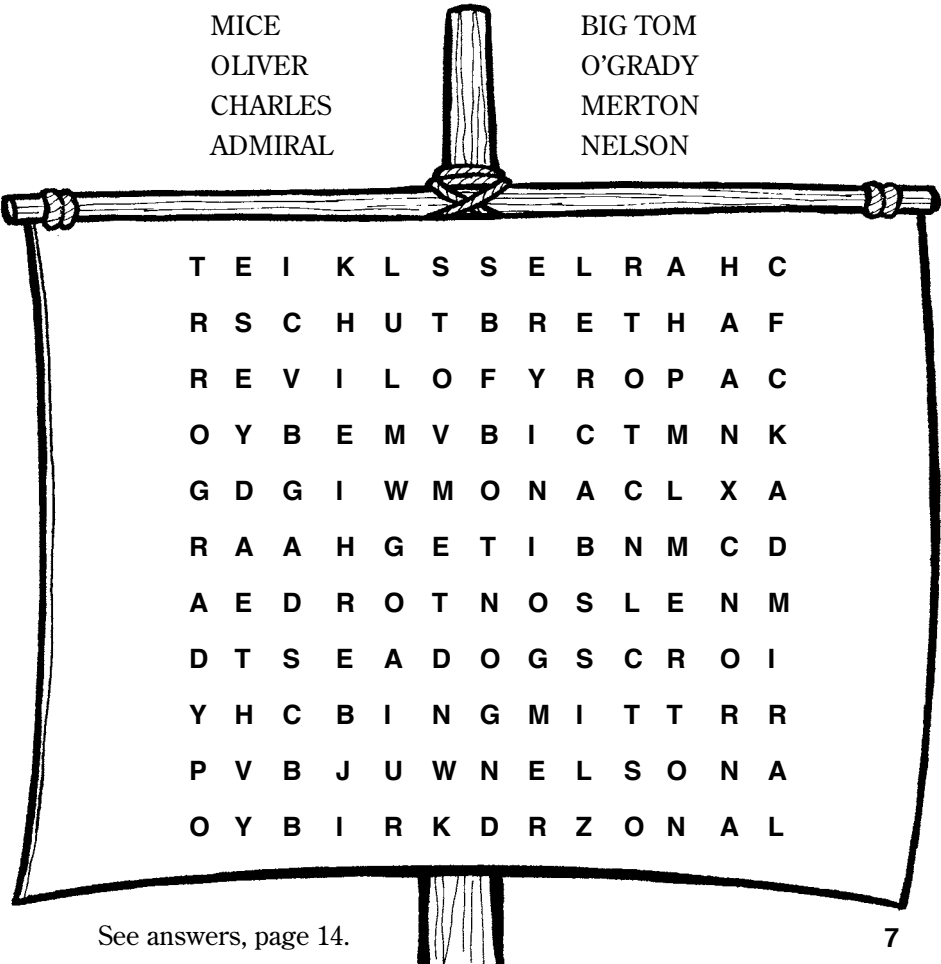

Who will control the ship in the puzzle below?
Find and circle the words from the GOOD list and the BAD list. Which list did you finish first? That's who takes over the ship.

GOOD

- CAPTAIN TABBY
- MICE
- OLIVER
- CHARLES
- ADMIRAL

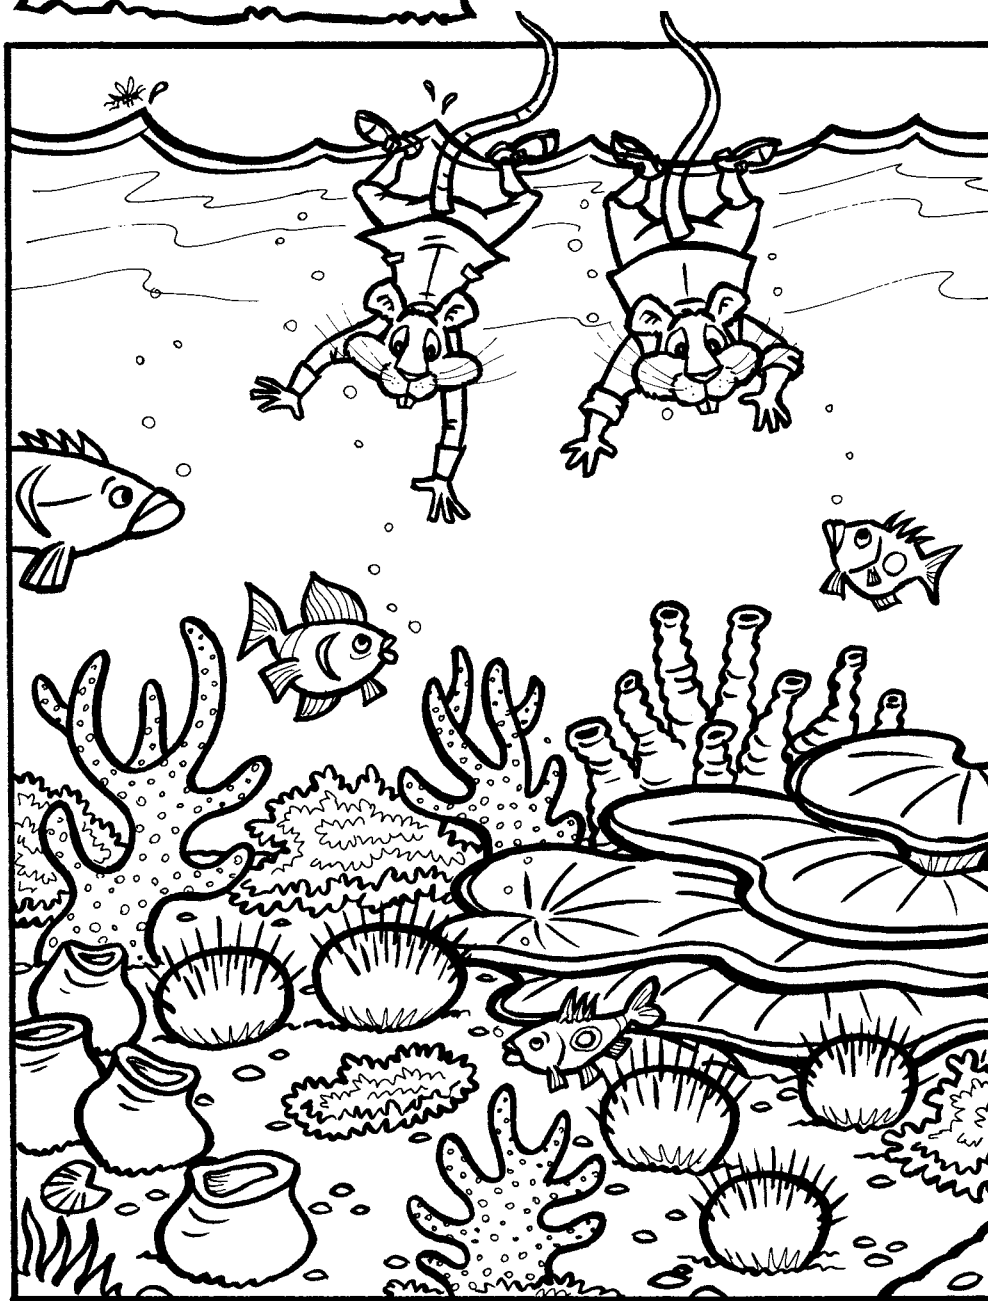

BAD

- SEA DOGS
- BIG TOM
- O'GRADY
- MERTON
- NELSON

See answers, page 14.

Chapter Eight

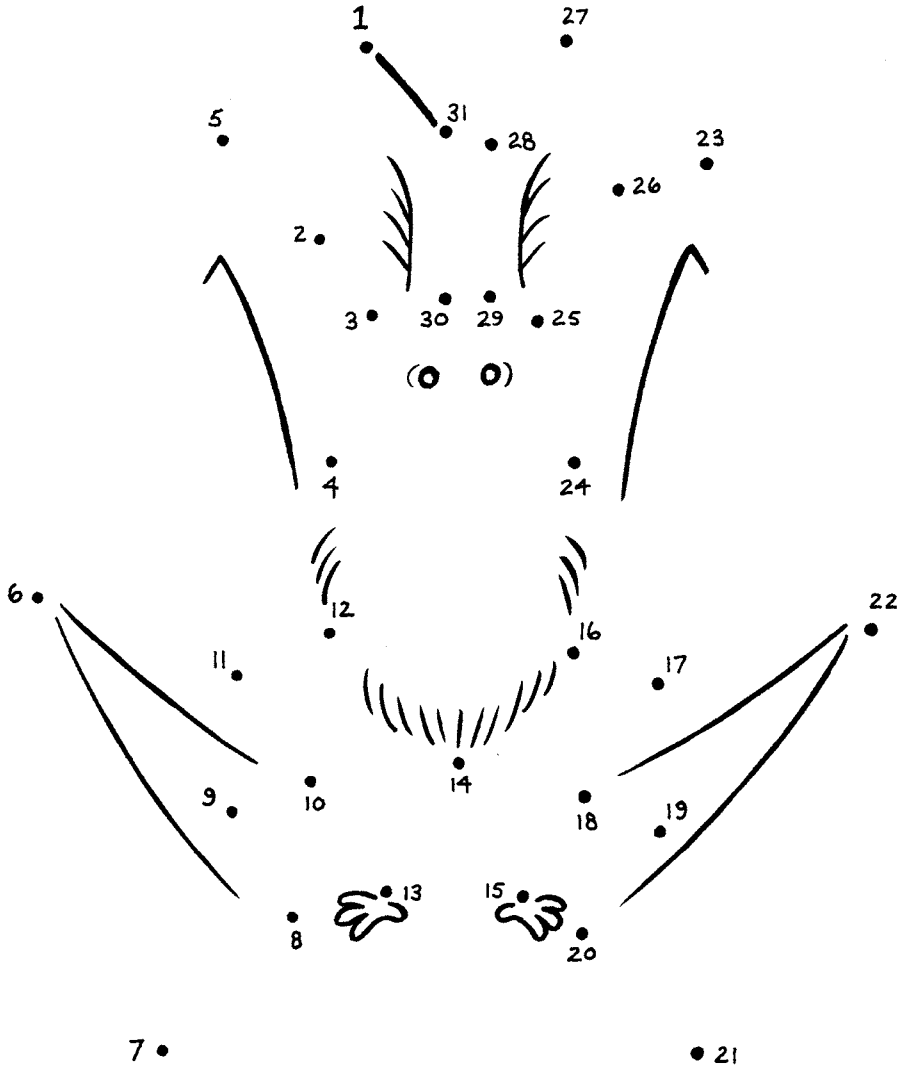

Read about the coral reef, then color this picture.

Chapter Nine

Connect the dots to see what's in the dark cave.

Then finish the face.

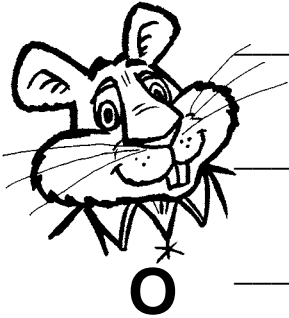

Chapter Ten

Emilio gave Charles and Oliver an exciting ride above the Island. Put the correct letter beside the words that each person said.

E

“We’re hardly strong sail- ors.”

“Courage, old chap.”

“Most ships dare not to land.”

“I can see why.”

“Maybe you can stay.”

“It was unforgettable.”

Are you ready for Book Two? See if you can remember these fun facts. Draw a line to the correct picture.

- What towers up from the middle of the Island?
- Who was biting the mice on the Island?
- What carried the mice's clothes down the beach?
- What did the mice throw into the sea every night?
- Where did Big Tom and O'Grady escape from?
- Who delivered the Queen's message to the mice?
