

Reading 6B

As Full as the World

Extravaganzas

(Lessons 72–97)

Vocabulary—Context Sentences

Six Hot Buns
Lesson 73

1. In spite of those who mocked him, Noah persevered until the ark was built.
2. Sir James obstinately refused to let go of his sword until he knew the battle had been won.
3. Paul was ravenous after being stranded three days without food.

Six Hot Buns

Lesson 74

1. Mrs. Tucker laid her baby in the perambulator and began her afternoon walk.
2. There was an air of profound sadness in the funeral parlor.
3. The savory smells coming from the kitchen made my mouth water.

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer
Lesson 77

1. The expression on the lonely boy's face showed he was full of melancholy.
2. Ella is a healthy, active girl with a lot of vigor.
3. The stray cats make their home in a dilapidated barn with a leaky roof and no doors.

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer
Lesson 78

1. The pipes burst and a deluge of water covered the basement floor.
2. The booming thunder and streaks of lightning petrified Beth.

There Is a Fountain
Lesson 79

1. Stephen plunged his hand into the cold water before he had time to change his mind.
2. The solitary confinement prison cells are reserved for the most vile criminals.

Literature Lesson: Devices of Style
Lesson 81

1. We went for a drive in the country to enjoy the picturesque scenery.
2. Please convey my best wishes to your grandmother when you see her.
3. His credibility as a coach was increased when we learned he had played basketball professionally.

The Adventures of Alexander Selkirk
Lesson 83

1. Troy's insolent attitude toward his teacher embarrassed his classmates.
2. John walked about in a stupor, not seeing or hearing what was going on around him.
3. Katy could appease the angry dog only by throwing scraps of food to him.

The Adventures of Alexander Selkirk
Lesson 84

1. Oranges are easily procurable for those who live in Florida.
2. Holmes was able to ascertain who the intruder was by the footprints on the floor.
3. We hoped to find some implement that would unlock the shed door.

The Adventures of Alexander Selkirk
Lesson 85

1. Susan was reconciled to the fact that she might never see again.
2. Will was the one who descried the rabid dog and raised the alarm.
3. The renowned admiral spoke to our school about his Christian testimony.

Call It Courage
Lesson 87

1. The ship pulled into the lagoon to escape the tossing waves of the open sea.
2. Although it was not her first choice, Ana gave deference to her boss's decision.
3. Tom was in a perilous position when he discovered his parachute would not open.

Sir Alexander Fleming: Master of His Craft
Lesson 88

1. Once the water was contaminated, no one was allowed to drink it.
2. Mrs. Parker placidly continued teaching, ignoring the thunder and lightning outside.
3. A policeman in England is called a bobby.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin
Lesson 89

1. The obese bear waddled into his winter cave.
2. Patty had a look of consternation on her face until she realized it was a surprise party in her honor.
3. Holidays are a special time to gather with kith and kin.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin
Lesson 90

1. Our science teacher gave a commentary about the importance of safety procedures during lab experiments.
2. I couldn't brook the noisy chatter at the library table next to me, so I moved to another table.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin
Lesson 91

1. One of the neighborhood children stood at the open portal, hoping to be invited inside.
2. That is a beautiful hue of green that you've chosen to paint your bedroom walls.
3. The farmer dug a well that reached a subterraneous river.

The Peterkins Celebrate the Fourth of July
Lesson 94

1. Dad jocosely refers to his three boys as the “three stooges.”
2. The fulminating mixture caused a huge fire.
3. Esther admired the composition of the painting, especially the bright colors.

Feathers in the Wind
Lesson 95

1. Under the scientist's closer scrutiny, the star appeared to be a planet.
2. Clouds obscure the stars on stormy nights.
3. After he accidentally broke the window, Brad prayed quickly, dreading the confrontation to come.

Feathers in the Wind

Lesson 96

1. The colors of the sunset, merging gradually, made it difficult to know when day ended and night began.
2. Cowboy Jim tethered his horse to a fence post before walking into the store.
3. The feisty little dog growled menacingly to warn trespassers away from his yard.

Skill Lesson: Almanacs
Lesson 97

1. The new teacher wondered why his predecessor stayed only a week before quitting.
2. Bryan had only five minutes to give his side of the story, so he made it as concise as possible.