

Sentences

- A. Circle the word that should be capitalized.
Add the correct ending punctuation. (Chapter 1)

1. the apples on the tree are ripe .
2. when will we pick them ?
3. we need a ladder to reach the high branches .
4. look in the shed for a ladder .
5. these apples would make a delicious pie .
6. i can hardly wait to taste it !

- B. Combine the subject parts or predicates of each pair of sentences by using the word and. Write your new sentences. (Chapter 1)

7. Daniel went fishing. Adam went fishing.

Daniel and Adam went fishing.

8. Jana likes pizza. Maribel likes pizza.

Jana and Maribel like pizza.

9. I read a book. I read a magazine.

I read a book and (a) magazine.

Nouns

- C. Underline the ten common nouns.
Circle the four proper nouns. (Chapter 3)

10. Mrs. Carlton is a florist.
11. She owns a shop that sells flowers in Los Angeles.
12. The store is on Broad Street.
13. Her roses are beautiful.
14. Mr. Washington delivers flowers for her.
15. She makes arrangements for weddings, funerals, and birthdays.

