20	The second shaded sentence in the teaching box on the student page should have only one prepositional phrase. “About 1,600 kernels” is not a prepositional phrase.
21	In the first set of directions on the student page, change the wording to say the list of common prepositions is found on page 355 of the Grammar Handbook.
145	The student worktext page 120 has been updated to contain only information on the electronic library catalog. It no longer matches the student page in the TE.
230	The student worktext page 191, sentence 1 has been updated to, “This coffee is very strong.” It no longer matches the page in the TE.
231	The student worktext page 192, sentence 17 has been updated to, “The group will return the maps to the church.” The prepositional phrase is to the church , the simple subject is group , the simple predicate is will return , and the direct object is maps .
253	The student worktext page 212, sentence 22 has been updated to, “Brittany and Sue used sand dollars they had found for a craft.” Thus the pronoun is they and the antecedent is Brittany and Sue .
290	The student worktext page 241 has an error. The sentence in the purple shaded box on the top right corner does not apply to adjectives. Replace with the sentence “Avalanches are more dangerous than all other snowy weather conditions.”
